CHANGE OF NAME OR SEX

HOW DO I CHANGE MY NAME OR LEGAL SEX?

FOR YOURSELF:

Fill out the Petition for Change of Name / Sex and Judgment for Change of Name/Sex forms for adults. Choose the options that apply to you (name, sex, or both).

FOR A MINOR CHILD: (You must be a parent, legal guardian, or legal representative for the child)

Fill out the Petition for Change of Name / Sex and Judgment for Change of Name/Sex forms for minors. Choose the options that apply (name, sex, or both). You are the Petitioner.

If the Petition is for a name change for a minor child, then after you file your Petition and get a case number, you must send written notice to:

- the other parent (if you are a parent) unless the child has not lived with the other parent and the other parent does not contribute (and has not tried to contribute) to the support of the child
- both parents (if you are not a parent)
- all legal guardians

After you send notice, complete and file the Declaration of Notice form with the court

WHERE DO I FILE?

Name Change – If you are filing for yourself, file in the circuit court for the county where you live. If you are filing for a minor child, file in the county where the child lives.

Sex Change – You can file in any circuit court in Oregon. If you are also asking for a name change, you can file for both at the same time in any circuit court in Oregon.

Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/courts/Pages/default.aspx for the location and address of each circuit court in the state. BE SURE TO FILL IN THE COUNTY NAME AT THE TOP OF THE PAGE!

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO FILE?

Go to <http://www.courts.oregon.gov/Pages/fees.aspx> for the filing fee

DO I HAVE TO GO TO COURT AFTER I FILE?

Not unless the court tells you to or sends you a hearing notice. In some situations, a judge may want to talk to you or to the other parent if the Petition is for a minor child.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

The court will enter the judgment into the court's records (called the Register of Actions). The judgment is effective once it's entered. The court will send you a Notice of Entry of Judgment. If you want a copy of the Judgment for yourself, call the court to find out how to get one.

NOTE: The court will not send the judgment to any other agencies or recipients. If you want your (or your child's) birth certificate, driver's license, Social Security card, or any other record changed, you must provide a copy of the signed Judgment to each provider according to their requirements.

DO I NEED A LAWYER?

You do not need a lawyer to file for a change of name or sex. If you have questions about how the law works or what other issues may arise from a name or sex change, you may want to talk to a lawyer. Court staff cannot give you legal advice. If you need help finding a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar's Lawyer Referral Service at 503.684.3763 or 800.452.7636.

What Happens Now?

Lauren here! Congrats on getting your name change forms all buttoned-up and ready to go. But we can't celebrate quite yet: just having your forms in hand is but one part of the process. You'll need to take care of the rest of this stuff in the real world...

But, don't sweat: I've prepped this handy checklist for you to take with you, free of charge! So feel free to save a copy, print it out, write all over it – whatever helps you the most!

Your To-Do List:

State: Oregon

- Head to your local circuit court and file your Name Change Form. The filing fee is around $124, but it depends on the county.
- You may receive a hearing date to appear before a judge. You must attend this.
- After this hearing, you'll receive your court order if the judge has no objections.
  - I recommend you pay the extra $5 or so per copy for the court order and order 2-3 copies!
- After this hearing, you'll receive your court order if the judge has no objections.

Note: You may be required to show additional documents during this process. Bring your Driver's License, Birth Certificate or Passport, and copies of bills showing your current address to any notary or court visit you make!

After that – congratulations! You've got a bona-fide court order in hand, and your new name is – legally speaking – rightfully yours!

Next, you'll want to get started updating your name with other government agencies:

- Social Security Administration (do this first!)
- Oregon Driver and Motor Vehicle Services (You can also change your gender marker while filing out this form, too!)

By the way, thanks again for coming by! While we have these forms in-hand now, It'd be remiss of me if I didn't also mention that Oregon's Judicial Branch actually lets you file for a name change directly on their website! Nifty, huh? So, if you wanna go ahead and do that, check this out: OJD Guide & File

Don't worry, you won't hurt my feelings! I'm just glad you get to be the real you. <3
